CITY'S LICENSE LAW UPHELD IN HIGHEST COURT

Judge Reed Sustained on Appeal of Merchants From Decision.

Tax Committee Meets State Board Today.

Blenders Hope For Victory.

Frankfort, Ky., April 29. (Special.)—The court of appeals has sustained the license ordinance of the city of Paducah, and the record was expressed to the circuit court clerk of McCracken county. This settles the controversy over the raise in licenses.

Tax Matter.
Members of the committee sent by the city and county to protest against the raise in state taxes are meeting with the state board of equalization this afternoon.

Members of the Retail Merchants' association brought suit against the city to declare the license ordinance void, and return to the schedule of the 1908 ordinance. The city won in the circuit court and the court of appeals sustained Judge Reed.

The city had already apportioned the anticipated revenues under the ordinance, and if the city had lost, it would have made a difference of about $30,000. Few licenses have been collected, as the injunction stopped the city, and the general council refuses to pay the license inspector's salary.

Blenders May Win.
Washington, April 29. (Special.)—On account of an unofficial statement made by Solicitor General Powers, blenders and rectifiers expect a decision in their favor in the whiskey label matter. Powers said at the hearing he thought whiskey was whiskey, whether mixed with plain water or pure alcohol.

New Major.
Frankfort, Ky., April 29. (Special.)—Capt. H. H. Denhardt, of Bowling Green, was made Major of the first battalion, Third regiment.

H. M. Flankin.

He is survived by his wife and four children, Mrs. Robert Wood, Miss Mattie Flankin and Mr. George Flankin, of Grahamville, and Mr. John Flankin, of La Center. The funeral was held this morning at 11 o'clock. The burial was at the Spring Hill cemetery near Grahamville.

Memphis, Tenn., April 29.—Thomas Porter, an Englishman, 79 years old, who has been employed as a packer by the firm of Ivey & Gilliland, may shortly come into possession of a legacy in England, valued at a million dollars. Through a brief item in a Memphis newspaper Porter learned that an effort was being made to locate him or his children, and at once responded. He formerly lived at Stoke-on-Trent, in England, where the legacy is awaiting his claim.

MEET TO PROMOTE MISSIONS.
300 Women Attend Milwaukee Session of Presbyterian Board.

Milwaukee, April 29.—The thirty-eighth annual meeting of the women's Presbyterian board of missions of the Northwest, comprising twelve states, opened at the Immanuel Presbyterian church, there being about 300 delegates in attendance. The convention will continue through today. The principal address of last evening was delivered by Rev. Samuel M. Zwemer, a former missionary to Arabia, on "The Three-Fold Challenge From the Moslem World."

PROSECUTORS DISAPPOINTED.

Attempt to Prove Woman Isn't Boyle's Wife Appears Futile.
Mercer, Pa., April 29.—Attorneys for the prosecution of Mr. and Mrs. Boyle are said to be disappointed over the result of the trial of their detective to Chicago and Indiana points in search of evidence to prove that the woman was not the legal wife of Boyle. Marriage records in several cities have been searched in an effort to establish the woman's marital status and determine whether her indictment as a "mistress" will stand.

Number Murders by Mohammedans Estimated at Thirty-Five Thousand Since Trouble Began in Asia Minor

New Sultan of Turkey Introduces Drastic Reforms, Reducing Expenses of Civil List Millions.

Mersina, April 29.—The Persian village of Hadkeh was completely destroyed by a Mohammedan mob. Only those who fled in the early stage of the fighting escaped.

Turkey was applied and scarcely a building remains. Messages today from Hadkeh say the situation there is desperate and no relief is in sight. Christians, including foreign missionaries, are besieged. They have food enough to last a day or two. Murders throughout the province of Adana since trouble started, are estimated at 35.

Constantinople, April 29.—Sultan Mehmed V inaugurated a sweeping policy of economy today by cutting off scores of attaches from the palace civil list, and removing hundreds of supernumeraries from the government departments. Several thousand persons have been discharged. A saving of millions is effected.

Abdul Must Disgorge.
There is the highest authority today for the statement that Young Turks intend eventually to court-martial Abdul Hamid. If this is done, execution is probable, as the Young Turks would not care to take action unless they had sufficient evidence to insure conviction on a penal offense. The hiding place of Abdul's fortune is worrying Young Turks. They are convinced he has millions. It is believed the threat of court-martial really is for the purpose of making Abdul disgorge.

Victims of the Moslems.
London, April 29.—A message today from Antioch in Aleppo province, Asiatic Turkey, says a countless multitude of widows and orphans of the victims of the massacres are awaiting toward the mission. Many of them are horribly wounded. They are begging for food and shelter.

The company, according to attorneys, agreed to pay the government a sum almost equal to the full duty on raw material that had been properly weighed upon its arrival. It agreed not to appeal. The amount involved is a million and a quarter.

BATTLESHIPS BE RECONSTRUCTED ---NEW YORK WORLD

New York, April 29.—The New York World today prints the following from its Washington correspondent: "The navy department has announced that sixteen of the battleships, which made the world cruise, will be remodeled, practically conforming reports current since the fleet's return that the voyage nearly wrecked the navy. The announcement seems to substantiate the reports that the navy today is practically useless and out of commission," according to the article the department proposes to make battleships something like the old monitor type

His manners are very gracious and easy, and he is exceedingly generous and kind. He is not at all fanatical, but is sincerely religious. He plays unusually well on the piano and is a great admirer of classical music."

STUDENT MURDERS SWEETHEART WHO WON'T MAKE UP

Northampton, Mass., April 29.—Helen Morden, of Somerville, Mass., a Smith College senior, was shot on the college campus this morning by a Dartmouth student named Smith. She is dying. Student killed himself. Miss Morden died at 11:30 o'clock this morning. Smith and the woman became engaged last year at Christmas time. The engagement was broken by the young woman. Smith made several attempts to renew the engagement. He came here again several days ago for this purpose. He was walking with her through the campus when he shot. The woman screamed after the first two shots and after the third she fell. Smith put the revolver to his temple and fired, producing almost instant death.

The student who did the shooting was Porter Smith, of Chicago.

Student Smith had a sister in the junior class. She and the girl lived in the same house. Smith had been here two days. This morning he was cheerful. The campus was comparatively deserted at the time. It is supposed he made a final desperate plea, and being repulsed, drew the revolver.

Who He Was.

Eaton Wins Nomination For State Senator in Second District by Big Majority on Third Ballot Last Night

Convention at Wallace Park Casino Adjourns After Two Lively Days—How it Was Done—The Speeches.

Prison Commissioners Harvey McCutchen and Eli Brown, were the recipients of an endorsement at the hands of the Second district convention yesterday in the resolutions. They are candidates for re-election.

No one could have asked for a convention to come to a more dramatic conclusion, without the aid of a dark horse and the other conventional settings for a landslide, than the one last night, when a threatened bolt was stemmed by the coolness and daring of Eaton's door manager, W. A. Berry, and the fairness exhibited by the successful candidate himself.

On the second ballot, which was taken shortly after 8 o'clock, Eaton had 4,743 votes, more than half those cast, though 4,861 was a majority of the votes in the convention. The chair was reading them off and had the sentence, announcing Eaton's election, half out his mouth, when Judge R. E. Shemwell, of Marshall, a Harry man, protested that the call stipulated for a majority of the votes cast for the Democratic electors last fall.

W. A. Berry was on his feet in an instant, insisting that a convention is a sovereign body, and when it voted the proposition, making 4,861 votes necessary for choice, it tacitly ruled that a majority of those voting should control.

It was a tense moment. Delegates were rushing forward with arms outstretched, and the giant frame of white-haired J. F. Cooke, of Ballard county, was projected through the throng in front of the stage.

In vehement language he shouted: "No Democrat is bound by the result of this convention. Mr. Chairman, if you call this an election."

He said he had voted the Democratic ticket all his life, but he didn't propose to be run over in this manner. The remainder of his speech was in the same strain, and there were enough cheers, accompanying it, to indicate that a bolt was imminent.

When he ceased W. A. Berry was standing on a chair, and as the turmoil abated for a moment, he said he could never be fairly accused of chicanery, and while he espoused the cause of a friend on the floor, all that he had done had been honorable. Just to show Mr. Cooke and the others that he did not wish anything more than what was coming to his friend, he would request the chair to take another vote, and "We'll beat you fair."

"I am glad Mr. Berry said that," said MacD. Ferguson. "For Mr. Eaton himself told me that he believed 4,861 votes are necessary to choice and he would not accept the nomination with any fewer votes."

Mr. Eaton nodded his head, and that evidence of the character of the man had a pleasing effect on the convention.

The chair, having received his instructions, swallowed what he had previously said, and declared it was no election, adding: "Will some dele-

CHICAGO VISITED BY THREE KINDS OF BAD WEATHER

Snow, Rain and Hail, Accompanied by Electrical Storm.

One Man Killed by Cyclone in West.

NORTHWEST CAUGHT IN STORM.

Chicago, April 29.—A violent storm struck Chicago early today and in three hours the city had hail, snow, rain and a brilliant electrical display. The storm is general throughout the middle west. From Wisconsin comes reports of snowfall so heavy as to block trains. A train was stalled in a drift near Oshkosh. A half an inch of snow is reported at Madison. Throughout town there were falls of snow and hail.

Storm in Kansas.
Wichita, Kas., April 29.—Lewia Ayres, aged 70, was killed and ten others were injured by a tornado which wrecked a large portion of Douglas, Kas., last evening. The storm spread over a wide area, doing much damage to farm property.

Storm in Iowa.
Dea Moines, Ia., April 29.—A terrific wind storm resembling a tornado in violence wrecked the Bank of Chisholm, at Chisholm, last night. The wind reached a velocity of 60 miles an hour and tore down telegraph and telephone poles for several miles southwest of here. Lightning and hail did much damage to property in Perry, Ottumwa and Creston.

Worst of Year.
Milwaukee, April 29.—Wisconsin is in the grip of the worst storm of the year. Almost no connection remains between this city and the outside world, and as far as the state is concerned, practically there is no communication. Last night's rain and snow snapped the telephone and telegraph wires. Railroad service is crippled for lack of dispatchers' wires.

Six Below Zero.
St. Paul, April 29.—The mercury fell 32 degrees last night. Snow and sleet flurries have been the program for the 24 hours. At Edmonton and Alberta the temperature is six below.

Come Near to Howls.
San Francisco, Cal., April 29.—"I never take any notice of a barking cur," said Francis J. Heney to Lewis F. Byington in the trial here today of Patrick Calhoun.

"I may be a cur," said Byington, rising to his feet, "but I am not a trailing dog, as you are."

Judge Lawler intervened as the attorneys stepped toward one another, and warned the combatants.

Thereupon Mr. Heney said: "I do not intend to be assailed by any person engaged in this case. I stood it for months when I was opposed by Henry Aeh, but, so help me God, I will not stand for it again."

PLAN TO QUEL MAY DAY RIOTS.
French Troops and War Ships Ready in Case of Need.

Paris, April 29.—Although the leaders of the General Federation of Labor, who are organizing a twenty-four-hour strike for May 1, disclaim any violent or revolutionary intentions, the government is taking elaborate precautions to preserve order on that day. War ships rigged with wireless telegraphy apparatus have been stationed along the coast for the purpose of preserving communication with the Eiffel Tower in Paris, and heavy bodies of troops have been drafted into the capital from Versailles and St. Germain.

Raising Interurban Money.

An extension of time has been secured on the contract of the Kentucky and Ohio River Interurban Railroad company with the trust funds for the erection of the interurban to Cairo. The committee of the Business Men's association has secured about $12,000 in subscriptions for the road, and in the extension of time it is hoped to secure the remainder. Cairo has about raised $25,000 and the people along the right-of-way have subscribed $25,000 which will be paid after the road is in operation. Mr. J. J. Freundlich was in Cairo yesterday in the interest of the road, and this morning he left for Chicago to attend a staff meeting. The committee will push the work of raising subscriptions and one member stated that he thought the entire sum would be subscribed.

W. V. EATON, Democratic Candidate for State Senator.

gato please inform the chair how many votes are necessary?" "Forty-eight sixty-one," replied W. A. Berry.

"Forty-eight sixty-one votes are necessary to choice," repeated the chair, and the vote was taken.

The Third Ballot.

Some belated delegates had entered the hall. Hinkleville, East Wickliffe, North Hardwell and Milburn now came in with 693 more votes for John M. Moore; but Birmingham and Little Cypress, of Marshall, added their 250 to the Eaton column, while Glibertsville added 126 to Harry's string. Then when the secretary was recapitulating the vote, North Hardwell and Milburn changed from Moore to Eaton, giving him 5,344; Harry 2,996 and Moore 1,349.

Judge R. E. Shemwell moved to elect by acclamation—which was done.

Eugene Graves, John D. Smith and James Ray were appointed to escort Mr. Eaton to the stage.

In his speech Mr. Eaton pledged himself to look after the interests of his constituents, and so conduct himself that he could come back here and to live with the respect of his fellow citizens. He said he is a Democrat, and as far as he is concerned, only Democrats will get office elected by the legislature.

Hon. E. Harry, when called upon said the speech he had prepared was

PRIMARY LAW NOT AMENDED

Illinois Senate Kills Dunlap Bill.

Gives Cities Right to Increase Bonded Indebtedness—Seventy-Seventh Bill for Senator.

BONDING BILLS ARE PASSED

Springfield, Ill., April 29.—The senate killed Dunlap's bill, making an important amendment to the primary election law, by striking out the enacting clause.

The bill provided that the advisory vote for the United States senator should be cast by the voters of the state as a unit and that the candidates for the general assembly should file with the secretary of state, with their nomination papers, a declaration as to whether they would consider the vote of the state for United States senator binding on them if elected, or would simply consider it as a recommendation.

Measure Tabled.

The bill also provided for the printing of the names of the candidates on the ballots in rotation, one name heading the list in one district, the next name on that list heading it in another district, etc.

Senator Potter moved to strike out the enacting clause, then made a motion in table. Potter's motion was lost, yeas 23, nays 26, and then on a viva voce vote the rotter motion to table was carried.

Senator Hopkins and his managers United States Marshal Hillecock and former state senator Henry sat on the floor of the senate and were interested listeners to the debate on the bill.

The house passed the bonding bills which gives cities the power to increase their bonded indebtedness. They charge the rate of assessment throughout the state from one-fifth of the real valuation, as at present, to one-third the real valuation, and cut down the bond rate from five cents per $100 to three cents per $100.

BANISH THOSE GRAY HAIRS!

Kill the Dandruff Germs—Stop Hair Falling

Thousands of mothers are looking younger.—Their gray hairs are gone. The natural color has come back, and with it a new growth of soft, glossy, luxuriant hair. Why should you look old before your time, when you can look years younger by using

WYETH'S SAGE & SULPHUR HAIR RESTORER

Dandruff Cured

Three applications removed all the dandruff and left my scalp clean, white and smooth. Wm. Croak, Rochester, N. Y.

It is Positively Guaranteed to Restore Faded and Gray Hair to Natural Color

If other "so-called" Restorers have failed, don't give up hope, but give WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR RESTORER a trial. You run no risk. If it is not exactly as represented, your money will be refunded.

PROFIT BY OTHERS' EXPERIENCE

Gray Hair Restored.

My hair was getting quite gray and falling out rapidly and I was troubled with a terrible itching of the scalp. My head was full of dandruff, which fell upon my clothes and kept me continually brushing it off. While on a visit to Rochester I heard of your Sage and Sulphur for the hair. I got a bottle and used it. A few applications relieved the itching, my hair stopped falling out and gradually came back to its natural color. It is now a nice dark brown color, soft, glossy and pliable. Several of my friends want to use it, and I want to know what you will charge me for six bottles of it.

MISS E. A. ROSS,
Sharon, Mercer Co., Pa.

Grew Hair on a Bald Head

For two or three years my hair had been falling out and getting quite thin until the top of my head was entirely bald. About four months ago I commenced using Sage and Sulphur. The first bottle seemed to do some good and I kept using it regularly until now I have used four bottles. The whole top of my head is fairly covered and keeps coming in thicker. I shall keep on using it a while longer, as I notice a constant improvement.

AMERICA AS WORLD POWER

Not Regarded as Second by English Admiralty.

London, April 29.—Answering a question in the house of commons today as to whether it was the policy of the government to take into consideration the American navy when estimating the number of ships necessary to Great Britain to maintain a fleet 10 per cent more powerful than the combined fleets of any other two powers, a formula known as the "two powers standard," Lord Lansdowne, first lord of the admiralty, said this was an academic question as under existing conditions the navy of the United States for practical purposes of the future Special Examiner Sylvester G. Williams.

W. S. McCarthy, traffic manager of a local hardware company, and a former railroad man, testified that prior to the railway merger in 1891, competition for general merchandise and wool business was keen between the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific agents, but that since the supposed combination had been made, so far as he was aware, to secure the routing of business over either of these lines, as the business was handled over the line most convenient.

S. H. Hancock, manager of the Commercial Club Freight Traffic Bureau, testified along similar lines.

The trouble with reform in every-body wants to apply it; nobody wants it to be applied on him.

Two power standard as denied in the species of Premier Asquith would not enter into account Asked further if it was not a mooted point whether America was not at the present moment the world's second strongest naval power, McKenna replied:

"Under the two power standard as defined by Mr. Asquith the American navy is not to be regarded."

BEGINS RAILROAD SUITS.

Government Making Effort to Dissolve U. P. and S. P. Merger.

Salt Lake, Utah, April 29.—The introduction of testimony in the government's suit to dissolve the alleged combination of the Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and affiliated lines for the purpose of preventing competition was begun in this city today.

Your Neighbors Can Tell You

No doubt, if you yourself don't know, of many marvelous cures of Stomach, Liver, Blood and Skin affections that have been made by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for it has a most successful record of over 40 years.

These CURES embrace also many bad cases of Weak Lungs, lingering Coughs, Bronchial, Throat and Lung affections, some of which, no doubt, would have run into Consumption, had they been neglected or badly treated. We don't mean to say that the "Golden Medical Discovery" will cure Consumption when fully seated, but it will strengthen weak lungs, improve digestion, and make pure, rich, red blood thereby overcoming and casting out disease-producing bacteria and giving robust, vigorous health.

All particulars about the "Discovery," its composition and uses, in Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1000 pages, revised up-to-date, sent for 31 cents, in one-cent stamps in cloth covers, or 21 cents for paper covered, to pay cost of mailing only. Daily Thought.

Faults are things you can see in others, but not in yourself.

That was a fine speech Alben Barkley made, nominating Mr. Eaton.

The News-Democrat evidently agrees with Col. Henry Watterson, that a prohibitionist can't be a Democrat. So be it.

Yes, we heard the report of the committee on credentials read, too, but like Temporary Chairman Bradshaw, we didn't hear that part of it.

Proof of the sobriety of a committee by affidavit that there was no whisky in the committee room, is rather unique at a political convention, but it is only another evidence of the care taken to conduct a "clean convention," free even from the appearance of evil.

The business men of Pine Bluff, Arkansas, appreciate what it takes to get new railroad facilities for their town. They have the prospect of three new roads into that center, and the business men have started a movement to raise $250,000 to give the roads. There is food for thought in that for Paducah.

THE MORNING AFTER.

Democracy of the Second senatorial district last night went on record against the county unit bill, and there's an end to it.

The nominee, W. V. Eaton, is a well known attorney, a fine gentleman and a good citizen. If he is elected, McCracken county and the district will be represented in an able manner in the upper house of the general assembly.

As for the convention—well, politics is politics, and we have seen those that were worse, considering the fact that the minority organized this one. To the man to whom politics appeals as a game, and in whose ears the bird of freedom screams only on such stated occasions as the Fourth of July and when "our party" holds a rally, the spectacle was interesting, if not especially edifying.

District Chairman W. F. Bradshaw, Jr., who called the convention to order, conducted himself with dignity, and presided over the preliminaries with impartiality. Nobody could find fault with Mr. Bradshaw's evident determination to be fair. But, Mr. Bradshaw looked "plumb tickled" when he introduced Jack Fisher and resigned the gavel (figurative) to him. Mr. Bradshaw apparently had no taste for what was to follow.

Jack is of a more philosophic temperament, we suspect. In fact it will require all Jack's philosophy to reside with any degree of grace in Benton after this convention. They have a peculiar code of ethics in some of those old fashioned communities.

The secretaries and the credentials committee performed their appointed functions correctly. It was a matter over which the committee had no control that in those precincts contested by Barry, the precinct chairman had properly certified the credentials, and that in those contested precincts carried by Barry, the precinct chairmen had improperly certified Barry credentials. It also was one of those vagaries of Providence, which occur in even well regulated conventions, that all the credentials lost between the time they were presented to the convention and the time they were returned by the credentials committee, were Barry credentials. However, the committee made haste to rectify the error just as soon as the duplicate credentials, accompanied by an affidavit and the chairman of the precincts, were brought in, after a 25 mile ride in an automobile.

The sobriety with which the deliberations of the credentials committee were conducted Tuesday night is attested by the affidavit that Claude Shemwell, a member of the committee, that there was no whisky in the committee room at the Palmer House. The affidavit, which added that young Shemwell looked after Mr. Barry's interest, was read in the convention, and ought to be convincing, although it will always remain a mystery why he did not bring in a minority report, seating the Barry delegates, and expose the rule, which deprived one precinct of its vote. On invitation of the chair, Judge Barry proposed a name for the committee; but Shemwell, who is an inexperienced boy, was placed on it to represent him.

We could not cease without a word about W. A. Barry. He seemed to know just what ought to be done and how to do it. The delegates waited for him to make the motion and they voted for it. When, occasionally, a delegate would vote wrong on the question, Judge Barry, always alert, was there to correct him. We don't know what that convention would have done without Judge Barry, though some people think they know what it would have done.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

The following call is issued: "Is it desirable to build up local industries?"

"Is it desirable to sustain our local mercantile establishments?"

"Is it desirable that money made in Paducah should be spent in Paducah instead of with foreign establishments, either mercantile or manufacturing?"

"Think it over, and ask yourself if the goods 'made in Paducah' should not demand your consideration?"

"It is the desire of the undersigned merchants and laboring men to form a club, or league, of people who believe these things to be desirable and beneficial; who are willing to put their shoulders to the wheel and push the output of local factories; who will agree to purchase local-made goods in preference to foreign-made; who will patronize local dealers in preference to 'out of town houses'; in short, who will work for Paducah labor, Paducah business, Paducah capital; for Paducah, first, last and all of the time."

"Will You Be One of Us?"

"A meeting will be held at the city hall on Friday evening, April 30, 1909, to form such an organization. We ask the presence and help of all who believe we should give preference to home made goods at all times and to our home business men instead of to the foreign maker, the foreign worker and the 'out of town houses,' and numerous 'club' frauds. If you are willing to boost Paducah, come and join hands with us; 'A little heaven leaveth the whole lump' We can help each other and accomplish good."

"Respectfully, E. B. Harbort, Dick McCulley, Charles C. Crow, Henry Eumnerich, C. A. Zelas, W. B. McPherson, W. E. Scruggs, R. M. Miles, J. F. Horn, D. B. Hotchkiss, Ike Anderson, Forrest Chapple, S. RIDERS GUILTY

THREE MORE JURORS SECURED TO TRY WAVERLY CASE.

All of Them Are Farmers Who Reside in Community Which Has Been Terrorized.

Waverly, Tenn., April 29.—Ross Swan and Jim Lawson, two of the men on trial for alleged night riding crimes, plead guilty and asked a continuance of their case until the August term of circuit court, with the understanding that their punishment should be fixed at that time. Rob was allowed half in the sum of $1,000. Their action was a great surprise to the crowd that filled every foot of available space in the court room, and during the remainder of the afternoon it was the principal topic of conversation on the streets, which were thronged with people from every section of Humphreys county.

Three additional jurors were obtained today in the night trial. They are Bill Clemmons, G. E. Etheridge and A. J. Arrington, all of whom are farmers and reside in the Eighth district, in which night riders have given much trouble. Clemmons is 47 years old, Etheridge 30 and Arrington 26. The 200 men remaining of the 500 summoned for jury service were examined and the state used 125. When the list had been completed Judge Cook adjourned court until tomorrow morning, at which time he will order Sheriff Oharr to notify 200 men to appear next Monday and the selection of the other five jurors will begin.

It is expected that the jury box will be filled next week, when the examination of witnesses will at once be entered upon. The witnesses will number near 200, and much sensational testimony that has not yet been divulged will be introduced.

4 WOMEN CHAINED TO STATUES.

London, April 29.—Four women suffragists succeeded in getting into the outer lobby of the house of commons this afternoon. They at once fastened themselves by chains to profiting by their previous experience, statues in the lobby. The police are now provided with metal cutting instruments, and today they quickly severed the chains and expelled the four women from the building.

EATON WINS

not apropos, but he had never scratched the ticket and was too old to learn, a sentiment that seemed to please the delegates.

John M. Moore made a speech in which he said he felt that he had experienced a new baptism of Democracy. He never had scratched the ticket, either.

That was the case with Hogard Wyatt.

The earlier stages of the proceedings yesterday, when W. A. Berry moved to go into the balloting, was exciting. One delegate, whose proxy had been voted wandered into the convention, and proceeded to vote not only his own precinct, but every other precinct in Ballard county, and contrary to the wishes of his colleagues.

They demanded that the entire county be called over again, and he rose to "speak," by saying: "Y'see, I'd ish way: 'I'ch got a good voice, and I'm shayn it fer 'em."

He failed to appear last night, and it was "schplained," that he was "down and out."

Another delegate would chime in at regular intervals in a husky voice with a demand that "we adjourn to 10 o'clock tomorrow morning."

A third, almost in tears and with voice choked with emotion, begged the convention to adjourn to some place "nearer town."

How the victory was won is plain, but not the inducement.

Here is what happened to Barry over Tuesday. The credentials committee decided against him in West Ballard precinct, of Carlisle; Bandann, of Ballard and Gallman's of Paducah, costing him 547 votes. By a rule of the committee on credentials, he lost Kirbyton precinct of Carlisle, costing him 114 more, or 661 before a ballot was taken.

John M. Moore stayed in the race and held out those who were pledged to Barry as second choice, while he let those he could control in Carlisle and Ballard go to Eaton, and Hogard Wyatt threw his whole strength in Marshall county to Eaton at the crucial moment. The only injustice done to Barry was in that those Ballard county precincts, instructing for Moore first and Barry second, were really for Barry, but intended to give their complimentary vote to Moore, who held them to their pledge, when he released others and had ceased to be a bona fide candidate.

Col. Joe Potter, who is an ardent local option man, has been the subject of many jokes by his prohibition friends, because as chairman of his precinct, he appointed a delegate to the senatorial convention, Frank Smith, who opposed E. Barry.

Today was get-away day for the delegates. This morning Chairman Jack Fisher and E. Barry and J. B. Wyatt returned to their homes in Benton. The Ballard county and the Carlisle county delegates left this morning at 9:30 o'clock for their homes.

INDIGESTION CURED. This is to certify that I was troubled with indigestion for two years or more, tried everything recommended by different druggists, but got no relief. I happened to pick up a bottle of Hays' Specific and tried it, and it gave such relief that I took three or four, but I do not think it was necessary to have taken that much, as I have never felt any effects of indigestion since taking the first bottle. I am well. You try it and be convinced.

OPPORTUNITY FOR A MAN OF MEANS

You are a wealthy man and believe that you don't need life insurance. But accidents happen—many fortunes are swept away through no fault of the owners.

You may expect to leave a large estate for the support of your wife and children. But through bad advice, lack of experience, extravagant habits, their inheritance may melt away after they lose your protecting care.

Even the proceeds of an insurance policy if paid to a widow, or to minor children, in one lump sum may be wasted or lost.

Safety can only be guaranteed by providing a definite income.

If you choose to make a moderate annual deposit with the EQUITABLE SOCIETY, the Society will pay your wife (or daughter) after your death an income for life—an income which cannot be diverted, or delayed, can never shrink or be in default, and can never be drawn prematurely, but will be mailed regularly to the beneficiary on the day it is due.

BEN BOW OUSTS RIVAL MAYOR.

Olyrod Promises to Get Even for "Young Turk" Tactics.

St. Louis, April 29.—James W. Olyrod, Mayor of Ben Bow City, has been "young Turked" out of the village hall by A. E. Ben Bow, the rival mayor. The coup d'etat was accomplished with the aid of Clifford Mathewson, brand new marshal of Ben Bow City, who has switched his allegiance from Mayor Olyrod to Mayor Ben Bow.

Olyrod and his councilmen went to the village hall last night, but they found the hall locked and Mathewson already a-hoam as a marshal, forbidding their entrance.

"I have been appointed marshal by Mayor Ben Bow," he said, "and have locked the hall at his direction."

So the Olyrod government dispersed.

"You just wait," said Olyrod today. "I will surprise Ben Bow, too, just like I did before."

From the evidence it appears that the commonwealth has a strong case against the woman. The gist of the evidence was that the woman with Reed entered the home of Will Reynolds, colored, and began quarreling. She pulled a knife and clinched with Reed and stabbed him through the heart. The evidence will be finished this afternoon and probably the jury will get the case before night.

G. W. Elvan Dismissed.
G. W. Elvan was dismissed of the charge of obtaining money by false pretenses. Elvan pawned a "phony" diamond to Ike Cohen and was arrested, but the grand jury failed to return an indictment. Elvan has been out on bond. His defense was that the pawnbroker accepted the diamond as genuine without any questions and advanced him $200.

The grand jury returned the following indictments: Wesley Diamond, colored, mayhem; Ed Owen, colored, petit larceny; Charles Brown, colored, false swearing.

Ed Owen pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing a jug of whiskey and was given two months in the county jail.

GROOM HAD COLD FEET WHEN HE SAW A NEWSPAPER MAN

"Let's call it off," said William A. Hight as he stood before County Clerk Bill Boone this morning with a marriage certificate in his hand, and saw a newspaper man present. "No we won't," spoke up Miss Maud Mowery. "Putting it in the paper will not keep us from marrying," she continued. The couple came to Paducah, from Wetang, Ill., for a quiet ceremony, and wanted their marriage kept out of the paper, and the groom was willing to surrender the marriage license, but his fiancée would not stand for it. With the declaration "That it won't reach home," the couple marched to the parsonage of the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church, where the Rev. J. R. Henry married the couple. The bride was a pretty little woman of the blonde type. Hight is a railroad bridge contractor.

parlor. The chandeliers were twined with Plumes fern. In the dining room the decorations were artistically arranged and a bower was formed for the punch bowl in one corner of the room.

Just before the ceremony, Miss Lolla Hovenden sang two solos, "O Promise Me," and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told." Mrs. Viva Ragdale played the wedding march. GIVES MILWAUKEE HOME RULE.

Wisconsin Senate Passes Long-Sought Self-Government Bill.

Madison, Wis., April 29.—The senate today passed the Bodenshtab bill providing for self-government and non-partisan elections for the city of Milwaukee. Under the self-government bill Milwaukee is empowered to conduct its own governmental affairs. Instead of being compelled to go to the legislature every time it desires to create a new board or abolish an old one.

The non-partisan election bill provides that candidates for public office shall be nominated by petition and go on the official ballot under no party designation.

If the recommendations of the senate be followed the state constitution will be amended so as to remove the limitation of $100,000 for state indebtedness and to extend the time for the payment of state and municipal bonds from twenty to fifty years. The purpose of the proposed amendment is to enable the state to provide a suitable park and approach for the $10,000,000 statehouse at Madison.

PROSECUTOR TURNS BRIDE.

Evansville, Ind., April 29.—Police men were insistent witnesses of the marriage of Mrs. Sarah Hoffman of Ironton, O., and F. M. Beard, of Owensboro, Ky., in this city last night. Beard, an insurance agent, had he preferred not to marry, could have gone to jail charged with having taken $4,000 of Mrs. Hoffman's money. After she had entrusted him with it, she told the police, he disappeared. He was found in Nashville, Tenn. He promptly gave Mrs. Hoffman a check on a Henderson (Ky.) bank for $4,000. She softened and obtained for him from the police the choice of marriage or legal prosecution.

J. The burial was marked by unusual incidents. Dunsaddle, the thoroughbred which Mr. Collier rode on Friday a short time before his death, was at the graveyard as was a pack of hounds from the Knottown Kennels. The huntmen in full regalia also formed a part of the funeral procession.

ABDUL HAMID TO BE A PRISONER

Will be Kept in Large House Near Saloniki.

His Enormous Wealth Supposed to be Abroad, is Coveted By Young Turks.

TO START ANOTHER REVOLT

Constantinople, April 29.—The former ruler of the empire, Abdul Hamid II, is to be kept prisoner in a large house with walled grounds on the height overlooking Saloniki. He is not to be put on trial, as has been widely reported in Constantinople, for he is considered to be above the average. It was thought wise to keep the deposed sultan in European Turkey, remote from the capital. His household will be administered for him upon a generous scale and his life will be safeguarded as he earnestly besought when notified of his dethronement.

Taken to Saloniki.

Abdul Hamid, with four wives, five daughters and two of his younger sons, two eunuchs and a comparatively large number of female servants, was taken from the Yildiz palace last night and started under an escort to Saloniki. The party proceeded by steam launches to a landing near the railway and a special train, on which they were placed, left at 3 o'clock in the morning.

The Constitutionalists would like to get back part of the great sums of money the former sultan is supposed to have abroad, not only because the government is in need of the money, but because it is desirable that he should be deprived of resources for another coup d'état. Speculation places Hamid's wealth at anything between $25,000,000 and $200,000,000.

It was mentioned with pleasure at the palace of Mehmed V that the American ambassador was the first of the foreign representatives to communicate his good wishes to the new sultan. The sultan sent his compliments and thanks to Tolschman, expressing pleasure that the representatives of the United States was the first to congratulate him.

Rejoicing Continues.

The city is illuminated and general rejoicing continues. Although this was a holiday, court martial were held and several principals in the mutiny of the troops were condemned to death.

Later they were taken outside the walls of the city and shot. Prince Sabah Eddine, nephew of the sultan, who was arrested on suspicion of being implicated in the rising, has been liberated, and his release has caused a good impression.

AFTER SUFFERING ONE YEAR

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Milwaukee, Wis.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, and I would like to tell the whole world of it. I suffered from female trouble and fearful pains in my back. I had the best doctors and they all decided that I had a tumor in addition to my female trouble, and advised an operation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. Emma Jones, 833 First St., Milwaukee, Wis.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

NECESSARY TO QUELL ELECTION
RIOTS IN OHIO.

Ross County and Chillicothe Vote
Wet After Hard Fight at the Polls.

Chillicothe, Ohio, April 29.—In a local option election characterized by disorderly scenes throughout the day, at times bordering on rioting, Ross county today voted "wet" by a majority estimated at 2,000. The city of Chillicothe gave a wet majority of approximately 1,800 and the county outside was carried by a small majority by the same forces. Mayor Yaple and the city administration led the wet forces while the campaign of the drys was conducted by many persons prominent in the anti-saloon cause, aided by the local ministers and others. During the day numerous conflicts occurred between the partisans of the two factions and also between the citizens and the police. To restore order, Company H, Fourth Regiment Ohio National Guard, was called out and a large force of special deputy sheriffs was also sworn in. These, carrying wagon spokes instead of rifles, stood guard in the disturbed quarter until the polls closed.

BARRY IS DEAD.

Metropolis Man Last Seen on the
Cowling Missing Since Monday Night.

Missing from home since Monday, it is believed that "Ducky" Barry of Metropolis, was drowned off the steamer Cowling Monday night. Barry came to Paducah on the last trip of the boat about 10 o'clock, and was seen on the boat when she pulled out from the wharfbank. He never returned home that night, and since it has been impossible to secure a trace of him. His relatives thought he was in Paducah, but not hearing from him, the police department was notified last night.

Barry was about 25 years old.

A BOY'S HOLIDAYS.

The ardent controversy which has been waging in England and America concerning the best way to dispose of school boys in the long summer vacation has prompted the Grand Trunk Railway System to issue a special publication giving suggestions and practical hints to parents, as to what to do with the public and preparatory school boy during the months of July and August. The vacation camp is one of the solutions and the publication entitled, "What shall a Boy do with his Vacation," thoroughly covers the ground and solves the problem of the best way for a schoolboy to enjoy his holidays.

CHAPTER VIII. THE KNIFE.

IN every community, be it ever so small, there are undesirable citizens, and while the little party was still at breakfast on the following morning three such members of society came around the cabin and let fall their packs, greeting the occupants boisterously.

"Well, well!" said Lee, coming to the door. "You're travelin' kind of early, ain't you?"

"Yes, early and late," one of them laughed, while the other two sprawled about as if to rest.

"How far are you goin'?"

"We want a piece of this creek."

"What are you goin' to do with it?"

"Cut that out, Lee. We're on."

"Who would you up to this?" Inquired the other angrily.

"Never mind who put us Jerry. We're here, ain't we?"

The lumen was done, and there was no use in concealment, so Lee reluctantly told them of his discovery and warned them of the stakes already placed.

"I'll step along with the boys and show them where our upper stakes are," volunteered Stark, and Hunnison offered to do the same, adding that it were best to make sure of no conflict so early in the game. The five disappeared into the woods, leaving the others at the cabin in make preparations for the homeward trip.

"I don't like the look of this," observed the lieutenant thoughtfully.

"I'm afraid there's some kind of a job on foot."

"There's nothing they can do," Gale answered. "We've got our ground staked out, and it's up to them to choose what's left."

"They were nearly ready to set out for Pimbleau when the five men returned."

"Before you go," said Stark, "I think we'd better organize our mining district. There are enough present to do it."

"We can make the kind of laws we want before the gang comes along," Hunnison chimed in, "and elect a recorder who will give us a square deal."

"I'll agree if we give Lee the job," said Gale. "It's coming to him as the discoverer, and I reckon the money will be handy, seeing the hard luck he's played in."

The group assembled in the cleared space before the cabin to make rules and regulations governing the district, for it is a custom in all mining sections removed from authority for the property holders thus to make local laws governing the size of claims, the amount of assessment work, the size of the recorder's fees, the character of those who may hold mines and such other questions as arise.

It was of wondrous interest to Neela to be an integral part of such important matters, and she took pride in voicing on every question, but Burrell, who observed the proceedings from neutral ground, could not shake off the notion that all was not right. Things moved too smoothly. It looked as if there had been a rehearsal. Lee, Poole and the trader, however, seemed not to notice it.

The surprise came when they had completed the organization of the district and had nearly finished adopting bylaws.

Hunnison moved the adoption of a rule that no women be allowed to locate mining claims, and one of the strangers seconded it.

"What's that?" said Lee, raising his one eye from the notebook in which as secretary he was transcribing the minutes.

"It isn't right to let women in on a man's game," said Hunnison.

"That's my idea," echoed the second.

"I s'pose this is aimed at my girl," said Gale, springing to his feet. "I might have known you bums were up to some crooked work."

Poole likewise rose and ranged himself with the trader.

"Ba gar, I don't stan' for dat!" said he excitedly. "You want for jump Neela's claims, eh?"

"As long as I'm chairman we'll have no rough work," declared Stark, glaring at them.

"You're a bunch of rascals, all of you, tryin' to down a pore girl and get her ground. But who put you wise to this thing, in the first place? Who found this gold? Just because there's enough of you to vote that motion through that don't make it legal, not by a d—d sight, and it won't hold, because I won't write it in the book. You—you— He glared at them malevolently, searching his mind for an epithet sufficiently vile and, finding it, spat it out—"dressmakers!"

So this was why both Stark and Hunnison had gone up the creek with the three new men, thought Burrell. No doubt they had deliberately arranged the whole thing so that the new arrivals could immediately relocate each of Neela's claims—the pick of all the ground outside Lee's discovery and the surest to be valuable—and that Stark would share in the robbery.

Carefully slipping around the corner of the cabin and keeping the house between him and the others, Burrell broke into a swift run, making the utmost possible speed for fear they should miss him and guess his purpose, or, worse yet, finish their discussion and adjourn before he could complete his task. He was a light man on his feet, and he dodged through the forest, running more carefully than farther he went, visiting first the upper claims; then, making a wide detour of the cabin, he came back to the initial stake of Neela's lower claim, staggering from his exertions, his lungs burning from the strain. He had covered nearly a mile, but, even so, he laughed grimly as he walked back toward the cabin, for it was a game worth playing, and he was glad to take a hand on the side of the trader and the girl. Coming within earshot, he heard the meeting vote to adjourn. It could not have terminated more opportunely had he held a stop watch on it.

Clarksville, April 28.—It has been necessary for the United States department of agriculture to withdraw its tobacco breeding operations from the state of Tennessee. The project as conducted in the last two years, was the result of an agreement existing between the United States department of agriculture and the Kentucky experiment station to do such work in both Kentucky and Tennessee. In the beginning the department bore practically all of the expenses. Modifications were made in the original agreement whereby the Kentucky experiment station was to bear a certain part of the traveling expenses incurred. The fact that some of the territory included was in Tennessee made it impossible for the Kentucky station to pay such expenses. The only solution of the matter was to separate the Kentucky and Tennessee work.

The United States department of agriculture has no intention of neglecting Tennessee and contemplates a more extensive line of work embracing all crops in co-operation with the Tennessee experiment station next year. This agreement will be productive of better results for Tennessee farmers than the old arrangement between the department and Kentucky experiment station. I take the opportunity to offer this explanation in justice to Mr. C. E. Frey, of Clarksville, who grew a crop of tobacco for the department last year and had a similar contract for the present season. It was not due to any disagreement between Mr. Frey and the department that caused such action. Mr. Frey performed his duties faithfully and well, and due credit should be given him for it.

He took no pains now to mask his dislike for Gale, who began to move toward him in his dogged, resolute way. Neela, observing them, hastened to her father's side, for that which she sensed in the bearing of both men quite overcame her indignation at this blow against herself.

"No, no; don't have any trouble!" she pleaded as she clung to the trader. "For my sake, daddy, sit down." Then she whispered fiercely into his ear: "Ain't you see he's trying to make you fight? There's too many of them. Wait! Wait!"

Burrell attempted to speak, but Stark, who was presiding, turned upon him fiercely.

A moment later he saw the futility of interference when Stark continued, addressing the trader:

"This isn't aimed at you in particular, Gale, nor at your girl, for a motion to disqualify her isn't necessary. She isn't old enough to hold mining property."

"She's eighteen," declared the trader.

"Not according to her story."

"Well, I can keep her claims for her till she gets of age."

"We've just fixed it so you can't!" grinned Hunnison cunningly. "No man can hold more than one claim on a creek. You voted for that yourself."

Too late Gale saw the trick by which Stark had used him to rob his own daughter.

Decides in Favor of Lewis County.
Frankfort, Ky., April 29.—The Chesapeake and Ohio railroad must pay its assessment for the building of the Stout's Lane and Quick Run turnpike, in Lewis county, under a decision handed down by the railroad commission after an all-day session. The case has been in the courts for several years, and finally was referred back to the railroad commission for a decision. The commission held that the railroad must pay its part of the cost of building the turnpike. This will be about $5,000. The commission heard arguments and took under advisement the complaint of the Keystone Mining company.

against the Louisville & Nashville. The mining company wants the commission to require the railroad to switch coal cars in Henderson.

PADUCAH SHOWS LOSS DECREASE

Report of Fire Insurance Commissioners.

Losses Paid in State Aggregate Amount: Three Million Dollars for the Year.

FOUR MILLIONS IN PREMIUMS

Frankfort, Ky., April 29.—The fire report of Insurance Commissioner Bell, which has been submitted to Auditor James, shows:

On January 1, 1908, there were 140 fire and fire marine insurance companies doing business in the state by the authority from the department. Two companies were admitted to the state during the year.

Risks written in this state, as reported by all fire companies (fire, marine and inland and tornado business) were $216,596,247.50. The Kentucky stock companies writing $2,750,950.40; Kentucky mutuals $2,789,820; Kentucky assessment companies $4,420,161.17; stock companies of other states, $242,849,520.55; foreign companies, $63,785,765.08.

The premiums reported on the business done in Kentucky amounted to $4,426,059.26; of this the Kentucky stock companies received $35,024.92; the Kentucky mutuals $18,428.18; Kentucky assessment companies $97,712.64; stock companies of other states, $3,377,989.93; foreign companies $906,903.58.

The losses paid in this state aggregated as $2,912,568.87; Kentucky stock companies paying $21,129.81; Kentucky mutuals, $18,335.67; Kentucky assessment companies, $37,201.03; stock companies of other states, $2,199,166.54; foreign companies, $616,804.82.

Depression in Business.

The falling off in premium receipts may be attributed very largely to the depression in business. The large increase in losses is attributed perhaps to a number of causes; among them may be mentioned the depredations made by the night riders, the continued dry weather prevailing over the entire state during the summer.

MAXIM'S MAXIM.

Modest Claims Often Carry More Conviction Than Loud Boasts.

When Maxim, the famous inventor, placed his gun before a committee of judges, he stated its carrying power to be considerable below what he felt sure the gun would accomplish. The result of the trial was therefore a triumph of surprise instead of disappointment as it might have been if he had overestimated his gun's efficiency.
